

THE INTELLIGENCER.

Published Daily, Except Sunday, by Intelligencer Publishing Co., 25 and 27 Fourteenth Street.
JOHN FREW, Pres. and Bus. Manager.
Terms: Per Year, by Mail, in Advance, Postage Prepaid.
Daily (61ay Per Week) 1 Year—$3.20
Daily, Six Months—2.00
Daily, Three Months—1.30
Daily, Two Days Per Week—3.00 Daily, One Month—1.45
Weekly, One Year, in Advance—1.00 Weekly, Six Months—1.00

THE DAILY INTELLIGENCER is delivered by carriers in Wheeling and adjacent towns at 10 cents per week.
Persons wishing to subscribe to THE DAILY INTELLIGENCER can do so by sending in their orders to the Intelligencer office on postal cards or otherwise. They will be punctually served by carriers.
Tributes of Respect and Obituary Notices 50 cents per inch.
Correspondence containing important news solicited from every part of the surrounding country.
Rejected communications will not be returned unless accompanied by sufficient postage.

(The INTELLIGENCER, embracing its several editions, is entered in the Postoffice at Wheeling, W. Va., as second-class matter.)

TELEPHONE NUMBERS:
Editorial Rooms—321; Counting Room—322

THE INTELLIGENCER.

WHEELING, JULY 3, 1900.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL TICKET.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.
For Vice President,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
Of New York.

FOR CONGRESS.

First District,
B. B. DOVENER,
Of Ohio County.
Second District,
ALSTON G. DAYTON,
Of Hancock County.
Fourth District,
JAMES A. HUGHES,
Of Cabell County.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

Sheriff—D. H. Taylor.
Prosecuting Attorney—Frank W. Nesbitt.
Assessor (City Dist.)—Addison Israel.
Assessor (Country Dist.)—Lester Smith.

Maligning the Commissioners.

For some days past the Register has been making representations with regard to meetings of the board of commissioners of this county, sitting as a board of equalization and appeals, that are not born out by the facts. By implication and innuendo it has sought to convey the impression that the people who have petitioned for a reduction in the assessment of their property have not been treated fairly, and has hinted at star chamber methods and a secrecy of action that has reflected upon the honor and integrity of the members of the board. While it is true the general public has not been admitted to these sessions, every applicant for reduction of assessment has been accorded the utmost courtesy and the fairest treatment, together with his attorney when he desired his legal representative to be heard.

The same paper has hypocritically observed once or twice that its complaints were not inspired by any political feeling in the matter, but solely in the interests of the "dear people." At the same time it has solemnly advised the election of an entire new board as a remedy for the imaginary grievances it exploits. As the present board consists of eight Republicans and two Democrats it is at once apparent how disinterested its professions are.

It would certainly be a wretched change to alter the political complexion of the board. The people have not forgotten the odorous records made by Democratic boards, especially those that reversed the will of the people in counting out Judge Hervey, when he ran for state senator in this district; the present governor of the state when he ran for Congress, and Mr. S. G. Smith, who stood for the legislature. Such is the character of the boards the Register holds up for the commendation of the people. We do not think the people will approve of its suggestions for a change.

Intemperate Prohibitionists.

The Hon. Thomas R. Carskadon, of Keyser, who was a delegate to the national prohibition convention, which met in Chicago last week, and where the lightning played around his vice presidential aspirations to the extent of 222 votes, stopped in Wheeling, Saturday, on his way home. He was in the city long enough to encounter a reporter to whom he unbosomed himself at some length, his main point consisting in holding President McKinley responsible for the army canteen.

Mr. Carskadon is one of the most estimable citizens of this state. He was formerly an active Republican, and is now a patient, successful farmer and enjoys a national reputation as an authority on ensilage. Personally Mr.
Carskadon is an agreeable, Christian gentleman, but he has allowed his long enmity to the liquor traffic to run away with his calm judgment. The Prohibition platform which he exploits is one of the most inconsistent expressions we have any knowledge of. The members of that party affect to follow the teachings of the Master, yet in the very first enunciation of their principles they fall down. It was commanded by Him whom they profess to follow that no man should bear false witness against another, yet we have the spectacle of the condemnation of a man for an offense he is not guilty of, and this with the foreknowledge of the facts in the case. They knew and have known that the President only administered the law of the canteen as it was construed by the attorney general. This party preaches temperance, yet is most intemperate.
One of the attributes of temperance is charity, a virtue signified by the Great Teacher as the greatest of all virtues, yet they are all uncharitableness. There are many earnest men in the Prohibition party, but there are also many professionals who have no interest in the work except that which has inspired Richard Croker to remain in politics—for the money there is in it. The Prohibitionists have no hope of electing their candidates, and they cannot or will not see that they are aiding their ancient enemy. As long as apples, corn and rye are matured by God's smiles so long will liquor be made, and it will be consumed until the crack of doom. The impracticability of the Prohibition party is apparent. They do not themselves believe they can ever stop the legalized liquor traffic, but their fanaticism causes them to turn their backs on their best friends—those who advocate restricting the traffic and lessening its evils. The inconsistency of the leaders was never more glaringly exemplified than when Rev. Burchard forever blasted the hopes of Blaine's election by characterizing the Democracy as the party of "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion," and who a few short months afterwards consorted with the party he alliteratively condemned and was rewarded by the President whom he ana-thematized. In back-biting and heaping contumely on the head of a man, who is a Christian in the widest sense of the word, the Prohibition party is prostituting its purposes. They set themselves up as the accusing judge of a man whose hopes of salvation are just as secure as their own.

Our Afflicted Country.

The Bryanists are about to assemble and declare that the gold standard, "imperialism," the trusts and many other agents are working the eternal ruin of the country, and that the only salvation of the people from utter ruin, and the country from desolation and disaster lies in the election of that consistent humbug and apostle of calamity, William Jennings Bryan. But at the same time it would be well to inquire how widespread this disaster is that has overtaken the United States. Senator Frye has summed it up in a speech he delivered at the Maine Republican convention. Among the afflictions the country has suffered from he cited the following:

"Our wheat crop in 1898 was larger than that of any other nation—23 per cent of the world's crop.
"Our corn crop for the same year was ten times larger than that of any other nation—73 per cent of the world's crop.
"Our export of provisions was three times greater than that of any other nation.
"Our cotton crop was five times greater than that of any other nation—75 per cent of the world's production.
"Our coal production last year exceeded that of any other nation—31 per cent of the world's production.
"Our pig iron production last year exceeded that of any other nation—33 per cent of the world's production.
"Our copper production was more than one-half of that of the whole world.
"Our railroads were six times the length of those of any other nation.
"The United States will enter the new century as the leading world's producer in all the factors which enter into international commerce."

Will the conglomerates in session at Kansas City heed these things? Not much. They have stiffened their necks, and they intend that they shall remain rigid. Ephraim and his idols were never in closer communion than the attachment the Democracy evidences for calamity.

Girls' Industrial Home.

A writer in the Parkersburg News, unconsciously, we presume, seeks to detract from or ignore the credit due an accomplished lady of Wheeling for the establishment of the Industrial Home for Girls at Salem. The writer referred to claims that the school "is the creation of two editors of the state," and bases the claim on the agitation of the scheme by these gentlemen eight years ago. It is also claimed that the bill framed by these gentlemen after being defeated several times by the legislature was finally passed, and that "the Girls Industrial Home stands to-day a monument of the warm hearts and tender thoughts of two West Virginia editors." These are not the facts in the case by any means, and anyone acquainted with the work done by Dr. Harriet B. Jones, of this city, will readily substantiate the above assertion.

It is not a matter that should precipitate an unseemly wrangle as to where the credit belongs for the establishment of this worthy institution, but without doubt the efforts and labors of Dr. Jones brought the scheme to its fruition. The bill establishing the school was framed by Dr. Jones and passed the legislature during the session of 1897 without amendment. This was accomplished only after six years of arduous labor on Dr. Jones' part and the expenditure of much time and the consequent neglect of her practice in Wheeling while attending the various sessions of the legislature. The motives which prompted this excellent woman were wholly philanthropic, and as she has succeeded so well in her self-appointed task we do think full justice and credit should be accorded her.

The able and perspicuous New York Sun professes to believe that that By-ronic West Virginian, and whom proprietor of New York's bloomer waiter girls restaurant, Colonel Nat Ward Fitzgerald, will be Bryan's postmaster general in the event of his election.

The resignation of George E. Cox as a member of the national Republican committee from Ohio is an act of loyalty to the party that should not be overlooked even by his bitterest enemy. He was moved to retire from the committee in the interests of harmony.

The highest compliment ex-Senator Hill has had paid him so far was the sister smile of Senator Pittsford, when he was told that the New Yorker was conferring with Bryan.

It is said that David Bennett Hill is much pleased with Bryan's platform.
Does it occur to the people that Mr. Hill has to be pleased whether he will or no.

While denouncing trusts the Democracy should take the lid off New York politics and gaze upon the ice combination of Croker, Van Wyck and others.

To-day is the second anniversary of the naval battle at Santiago, where Admiral Sampson's fleet annihilated Spanish power in American waters. The event is saddened by the recent death of Admiral Phillip, a brave God-fearing officer, who commanded the "Texas" on that occasion, and the grounding of the Oregon, that great fighting machine which rendered such eminent service in crushing Cervera's ships.

Hill got ahead of Croker. He was summoned to the august presence of Farmer Bryan, and instructed in the art of platform making while you wait.

According to the consensus of opinion at Kansas City, Towne doesn't appear to fit in the vice presidential niche.

Chairman Jones hasn't expressed confidence in the country going for Bryan for the last few days.

The cultured Boston Journals are engaged in a discussion as to who invented baked beans.

To-morrow will be the day patriotic people celebrate and the Bryan Democracy desecrate.

To-morrow the lamentations of the Democratic Jeremiahs will be begun at Kansas City.

Ex-Governor Patton's boom didn't last long enough to reach Kansas City.

Bryan is the sure enough dictator of the Democratic hosts at Kansas City.
Bryan's platform incubator beats his chicken hatchery.

Alfred hasn't been heard from yet.

STATE PRESS GLEANINGS.

The Democratic candidates are out over the county knifing each other.
This is a good time to learn things that at other times are considered secrets in the party.—Mingo Circulator.

The "yellow kid" of yellow journalism may become prominent in national politics if William Hearst becomes the running mate of Bryan.—Parkersburg News.

If Miller and Byrne are to run, the Democratic campaign this year it will be a campaign of swaddling clothes.— Huntington Herald.

Nat Ward Fitzgerald's poetry seems to be the Democratic state platform.— McDowell Recorder.

It now looks as though the Republican gubernatorial nomination would be made with that same spirit of unanimity that characterized the national convention at Philadelphia when it named our national standard bearers.
The people of the Mountain State know what they want. Hurrah for White!— Preston Republican.

Fairmont put on metropolitan airs with street cars. Lots of the people will get used to the tarantula things.—Morgantown New Dominion.

Harrison county Democrats will observe the formality of holding a county convention and placing a full county ticket in the field, for the sake of keeping up the organization we suppose, although the polls next November will disclose that organization as decrepit as usual. If the Democrats want to be on the winning side the most sensible thing they could do would be to ratify the Republican ticket.—Clarksburg Telegram.

A falsehood told for political effect is just as reprehensible as if told for any other reason, and a political liar is no more to be respected than any other sort.—Cameron Banner.

The scarcity of issues for Democratic campaigning is shown in the eagerness of the leaders of that party to lug in the South African war, and other foreign questions.—Hitchie Standard.

The rush of militiamen to lay down their lives in China makes the national pulse leap once more in the good old-fashioned way. Whoop! Conspuez les Boxers!—Parkersburg Journal.

The Republicans of West Virginia are nominating strong men for members of the legislature. This is a good sign. Infinite harm is done by sending incompetent and uneducated men to make laws.—Addison Independent.

So far we have Dovener, Hughes and Dayton. The Third district will name Joe Gaines, and then the four representatives of West Virginia in the next Congress will have been selected.—Morgantown Post.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

A woman that belongs to clubs has no business to belong to a man.

A man who isn't too big a coward to get married is generally too brave.

After a man gets married he never gets what he wants to eat except by accident.

A woman is always mortified to death to know that her hired girl has found out that she wears false bangs.

Pickled olives were invented for women to take to parties and make their husbands sick all the way home with.—
New York Press.

Unusual Day for Parkersburg.

There were no lights or disturbances on the streets to-day, and very few drunken people were observed.—Parkersburg Sentinel.

When Summer's Just Ahead.

How can the day be dreary, How can the heart be sad;
When all the while we're glad—When every heart is leaping, Triumphant, from its bed;
When March is spent and sleeping,
And summer's just ahead?

There's joy among the flowers, There's gladness in the hills; There's laughter in the showers That swell the leaping rills; There's gladness in the hedges Where happy songsters wed, Exchanging loving pledges, With summer just ahead.

There's joy in every cluster Of reeds upon the slope; Each morning lends new lustre Unto the shield of hope;
Why should the heart be sadly,
An eye lowered with dread, When all the world is gladly
And summer's just ahead!

PICNIC, Mozart Park, July 4. Incline runs all day.

McFadden's Stores
Open Until 9 O'clock, Tuesday Night, July 3d.

GLENDOWER—"I can call spirits from the vasty deep."

HOTSPUR—"Why, so can I, or so can any man."

"But will they come when you do call for them?"—SHAKESPEARE.

How quickly Hotspur's wise and witty rejoinder tears the tragic mantle in which Glendower stalks, and shows beneath the seer's robe, the money of the mountain-bank. Most people would have taken him seer, without noting the difference between to call and to command.

Certain points of comparison are suggested between Glendower's tragic claim and the comic claim made in some specious advertisements. "I am a woman, I know all about woman." I understand woman, and I can cure woman because I am a woman." The modern Mrs. Hotspur puts her finger right on the weak spot of that clamorous claim by saying:
"Why if you can cure woman simply because you are a woman, then so can I and so can any woman." Which very plainly brings out the common sense fact that the cure of diseases does not depend upon being a man or being a woman but does depend upon being a trained and experienced physician.

There is, as far as is known, no qualified woman physician associated with any proprietary medicine firm. It is certain that there is no one, man or woman, who can show an experience or record equal to that of Dr. R. V. Pierce; more than thirty years of treatment of women's diseases with ninety-eight per cent.
cured out of more than half-a-million women treated. Sick women can consult Dr. Pierce by letter absolutely free of charge. Every letter is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential.
All answers are mailed securely sealed in perfectly plain envelopes. Address Dr.
R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.

NEWSPAPER WAIFS.

"Not Restricted."—"That gentleman who is being introduced to Miss Binks is a free thinker." "Which is he, a bachelor or a widower?"—Brooklyn Life.

At the Summer Resort.—May-Dull, isn't it? Belle-Awfully! We haven't a thing to do except to explain to one another why we are not in Paris.— Puck.

"What did Freddy say when you caught him coming out of the pantry with his hands stained red?" "He told the truth by saying that he had jammed his fingers."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

"I've a song here that I think will do." "Is there any sense in it?" "Not a particle." "Is there any tune in it?"
"Not a morsel." "Leave it. If it answers your description, it will turn out a gold mine."—Tit-Bits.

A Rash Observation.—Cassidy (meeting Mr. and Mrs. Casey)—Ah, Pat!
That baby is a perfect picture ay ye.
Casey—Shut up, ye fule! Somebody left it on our front steps and Ol'm taking it to the police station.—Judge.

The Parvenu Again.—"That Wiggle-wee girl is telling around that her grandfather moved in the best society."
"Exactly. And he also moved out the best society. He had one of the best trunks in his native village."—Indianapolis Press.

Where Creative Ability Balked.—"You look worried, Stubbs; isn't your historical novel selling well?" "Oh, yes; the book's all right, but I've got stuck on this magazine article explaining how I came to write it."—Chicago Record.

Well, good-bye, Mr. Green. It was so nice of you to come. It does father such a lot of good to have some one to talk to. "I was delighted to come, Miss Brown, but I'm afraid I'm not much of a conversationalist." "My dear Mr. Green, don't let that trouble you. Father's ideal listener is an absolute idiot, with no conversation whatever, and I know he has enjoyed himself tremendously to-night."—Punch.

A Place Unsurpassed.—"Well," said Mrs. Sirius Barker, with characteristic cynicism, "I'm glad they draw the line in this feminine determination to usurp the place of man in modern civilization." "What do you mean?" "I note that there is no movement afoot to have the wives stay in town during the summer and earn money so as to send their husbands to the seashore."— Washington Star.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F.
J. Cheney for the last fifteen years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

WEST & TRUAX,
Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
WALDING, KINMAN & MARVIN,
Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.
Testimonials sent free. Price 75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

LOW FARE WEST.

Special Rates to Kansas City via Pennsylvania Lines for National Democratic Convention.

Excursion tickets to Kansas City will be sold July 2 and 3, via Pennsylvania lines, from Wheeling, good returning leaving Kansas City not later than July 9. For information about rates through time and train comforts, apply to John G. Tomlinson, ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines, Wheeling.

Marquette, on Lake Superior, is one of the most charming summer resorts reached via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway.

Its beautiful location, beautiful scenery, good hotels and complete immunity from hay fever, make a summer outing at Marquette, Mich., very attractive from the standpoint of health, rest and comfort.

For a copy of "The Lake Superior Country," containing a description of Marquette and the copper country, address, with four (4) cents in stamps to pay postage, Geo. H. Headford, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Ill.

WHAT'S the secret of happy, vigorous health? Simply keeping the bowels, the stomach, the liver and kidneys strong and active. Burdock Blood Bitters does it.—

IF business men and merchants consult their best interests they will advertise in the Intelligencer.

CASTORIA.

Bears the Signature of
The Kind You Have Always Bought

MACHINISTS.

REDMAN & CO.,
Machinists.

Repairing of all kinds of machinery promptly and quickly executed.

J. S. RHODES & CO.

Special
Sale of LINEN
SQUARES

(Drummers') (Samples...)

Plain and Embroidered.

19c to $4.00.

Fully
One-Third
(1-3)
Less Than Value.

J. S. RHODES & CO.

PURITAN GAS RANGES.

PURITAN GAS RANGES.
Gas ranges are supplanting coal in most up-to-date kitchens. At the strike of a match you can boil or broil, bake or fry, roast or toast, heat water for the entire house with a

PURITAN GAS RANGE.
It will do all that any coal range can do, and do it quicker and cheaper. No dirt.
Occupies small space. Closed oven—fumes from burning gas. Bakes perfectly.
Call and examine them.

NESBITT & BRO., 1312 Market St.

PERFECTION GAS RANGE.

Perfection Gas Ranges.
Four and Six Hole—Coke Griddle—Water Heater—Warming Oven....

TRIMBLE & LUTZ CO.,
Write for Catalogue. 1500-1502 Market Street.

PAINTING, GLAZING, ETC.

JAMES McADAMS COLLINS, Painter, Grainer, Glazier, Kalso-miner, Sign Painter and Paper Hanger.

DEALER IN
Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, Putty, Enamels, Stains, Bronzes, Gold Leaf, Gold Paint and all grades of Brushes.

ESTIMATES
For old and new work promptly furnished.

Telephone 481. 1613 Market St.

ALBANY DENTAL PARLORS.

...ALBANY DENTISTS...
S. B. CALDWELL, Manager.
No. 1036 Main St., Corner Steel Bridge.

OVER DRUG STORE.

Gold Crowns and Bridge Work.
GOLD FILLINGS.
Open Nights
and Sundays.

WHITE SWAN LAUNDRY.

FOR THOSE WHO WEAR
shirts and shirt
waists, collars, cuffs, etc., the White Swan Laundry offers special advantages. We never vary from the A1 standard. Every article sent to us is carefully and as well as laundried in perfect style. Patrons and other accessories last much longer than was the case when their work was sent to other establishments. Profit by their experience.

WHITE SWAN LAUNDRY,
30-32 Tenth St., Hawley Block.
Telephone 560. F. R. SCHOEN.

POLITICAL.

REPUBLICAN CALENDAR.

July 11—State Nominating Convention, Charleston.

PATENTS AND TRADE-MARKS.

PATENTS AND TRADE-MARKS.

Proper protection secured in all countries. Reliable service at moderate rates.
Advice free. Correspondence solicited.
N. E. DUNLAP, Patent Attorney, Rensselaer Building, Wheeling, W. Va.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

POST-A POCKETBOOK BETWEEN 14th Bridge and Elm Grove. Finder will be rewarded by the advertiser at JOHN S.
WERTY'S GROCERY.

THE GRASS IS GROWING AND Lawn Mowers need sharpening. Bring them to the Wheeling Scale Works, or telephone 556 and we will call for them.
All kinds of other work done here. We give the best satisfaction and work done promptly. 1037 Market Street. ap15

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the German Fire Insurance Company, of Wheeling, W. Va., for the election of nine directors and the consideration of such other business as may be necessary, will be held on MONDAY, JULY 3d, 1900, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock p. m., at the office of the company, No. 29 Fourteenth street.
F. RIESTER,
Secretary.

Picnic Goods for July 4th.

We want your trade for the Fourth. We carry the line of goods you will want, at prices to suit all.
Boned Chicken, Boned Turkey, Potted Ham, Tongue, Chickens, and Fowls, Canned Beef, Chicken, Baked Ham, Lamb's Tongue, Beef Salad, Whole Ox Tongues, Salmon, Sardines, Crackers, Cheese, Olives, Pickles, Melons, Tomatoes, Lemons.